All content must be directly and materially relevant to the District-sponsored content that invites public comment or responses.

Content may only use language, style and tone generally acceptable for publications intended to reach school-aged children and families, and that is consistent with the District's educational mission generally and its goals of teaching civility, respect, and reasoned dialogue. Content that is false, harassing, threatening, abusive, vulgar, indecent, obscene, defamatory, libelous, or harmful to minors in any way; content that involves misrepresentations or personal attacks; and content that demeans or disparages an individual or group of individuals, is prohibited and will be removed.

Persons may not make allegations or disclose personal information regarding students. Content may not include advertising, promotion of commercial services or products, solicitation of funds for any purpose, or statements in support or opposition of political candidates or ballot propositions. Posting links to web sites or other electronic content, unless inherent in the social network involved, is prohibited.

All comments on the District's Facebook page related to District business will be considered public record subject to disclosure upon request.
