I agree to the following:

I am responsible for any and all material in my Web pages. I agree to maintain the documents to ensure their completeness, timeliness, accuracy, relevance and appropriateness. I understand that the files stored in my Web directory will be served to the World Wide Web and thus are open to inspection by the district, regional and world community. My personal pages (if any) will not create any false impression of district sponsorship or endorsement. All my documents comply, and will continue to comply, with the policies and regulations of the Pasco School District and all local, state and federal laws, including copyright laws. I understand that the Pasco School District reserves the right to remove links to my documents or the documents themselves should I/they fail to comply with this agreement.
