

Case Study: King Louis XVI	Material Selection:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Point in history (1750-1914) 	World Cultures book: pg 668-669 “the French Revolution
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Geographic Importance: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Where on map in relation to other nations ○ Natural resources
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Bibliographic information on main characters
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Event Description
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Immediate impact of event
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Long-term impact of event
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Historical Importance discussion prompts 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Is artistic and cultural creativity best served by political and religious stability, or is the progress of civilization best served by the energy that chaos promotes? ○ Are societies that have a large gap between an elite class and the poor doomed to fail eventually? ○ Did the French Revolution result in a democratic system of government for France or in the tyranny of Napoleon?

Case Study: Maximilien Robespierre	Material Selection:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Point in history (1750-1914) 	World Cultures book: pg 668-669 “the French Revolution
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Geographic Importance: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Where on map in relation to other nations ○ Natural resources
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Bibliographic information on main characters
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Event Description
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Immediate impact of event
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Long-term impact of event
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Historical Importance discussion prompts 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Is artistic and cultural creativity best served by political and religious stability, or is the progress of civilization best served by the energy that chaos promotes? ○ Are societies that have a large gap between an elite class and the poor doomed to fail eventually? ○ Did the French Revolution result in a democratic system of government for France or in the tyranny of Napoleon?

Case Study: The Conditions of the Working Class (Engels 1844)	Material Selection:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Point in history (1750-1914)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Geographic Importance: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Where on map in relation to other nations ○ Natural resources
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Bibliographic information on main characters
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Event Description
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Immediate impact of event
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Long-term impact of event
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Historical Importance discussion prompts 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Is artistic and cultural creativity best served by political and religious stability, or is the progress of civilization best served by the energy that chaos promotes? ○ Are societies that have a large gap between an elite class and the poor doomed to fail eventually? ○ Did the French Revolution result in a democratic system of government for France or in the tyranny of Napoleon? ○ It has been said that the real victims of war are not the soldiers who kill and are killed, but the women who support broken families, wander as homeless refugees, and sacrifice their sons and husbands to forces outside of their control. ○ Did the peace settlements at the end of World War I make World War II inevitable? Will the areas of Bosnia, Serbia, and Kosovo lead Europe to war again?

Case Study: Bourgeoisie	Material Selection:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Point in history (1750-1914)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Geographic Importance: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Where on map in relation to other nations ○ Natural resources
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Bibliographic information on main characters
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Event Description
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Immediate impact of event
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Long-term impact of event
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Historical Importance discussion prompts 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Is artistic and cultural creativity best served by political and religious stability, or is the progress of civilization best served by the energy that chaos promotes? ○ Are societies that have a large gap between an elite class and the poor doomed to fail eventually? ○ Did the French Revolution result in a democratic system of government for France or in the tyranny of Napoleon?

Case Study: Proletariat	Material Selection:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Point in history (1750-1914)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Geographic Importance: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Where on map in relation to other nations ○ Natural resources
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Bibliographic information on main characters
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Event Description
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Immediate impact of event
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Long-term impact of event
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Historical Importance discussion prompts 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Is artistic and cultural creativity best served by political and religious stability, or is the progress of civilization best served by the energy that chaos promotes? ○ Are societies that have a large gap between an elite class and the poor doomed to fail eventually? ○ Did the French Revolution result in a democratic system of government for France or in the tyranny of Napoleon

Case Study: Russian Revolution	Material Selection:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Point in history (1750-1914)
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Geographic Importance: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Where on map in relation to other nations ○ Natural resources
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Bibliographic information on main characters
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Event Description
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Immediate impact of event
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Long-term impact of event
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Historical Importance discussion prompts 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Is artistic and cultural creativity best served by political and religious stability, or is the progress of civilization best served by the energy that chaos promotes? ○ Are societies that have a large gap between an elite class and the poor doomed to fail eventually? ○ Did the French Revolution result in a democratic system of government for France or in the tyranny of Napoleon?